identifiable boundary markers, the signage system comprising a sign means at the boundary of the markers, wherein the sign means being visually viewable by an occupant of a vehicle adjacent the boundary markers, such that found in Wilson, Sr. (US 5,947,635). The prior art of record does not teach or suggest, in the claimed combination, a signage system for a traffic area, the traffic area comprising visually-identifiable boundary markers, the signage system comprising signal means on parking space lines comprising boundary markers for defining parking space; an interaction apparatus at the parking area for providing communication between a vehicle occupant at the traffic area and a person remote from the traffic area and wherein the sign means includes at least one electronic display for presenting information to a person at the traffic area.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Cabrera et al. (US 6,576,074), Conde (US 4,535,974), and Davis (US 3,788,755).

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
